1. Chapter 1

Standing in front of a house that stood on the very top of a hill that over see the whole village, was a young girl with aubrun colored hair that was braided to side and green eyes. she wore black leggings and a light brown tunic that came down just below her knee. the upper part of her Tunic was covered with black leather vest and her feet were engulfed by oversize furry boots.

"MagPie!" the said girl turn around to be greeted by her mother Astrid, she had grown into a fine Woman both as a worrior and as a mother. she and Hiccup had finally settled down and had family of their own with 4 kids.

"yes mother" Magpie quietly spoke. Astrid smiled down to her 2nd child " give this to your father he forgot about this again" she said handing over a small bag to her Daughter who took it in both hands.

"you better hurry now..." She assured her, Magpei smiled to her mother before hurrying away. Astrid huffed before turning back inside yelling in demanding tune

" Twins! down now it time for your bath!" two whines can heard from inside saying " But MOM~" before Astrid shut the door.

meanwhile Magpie was made her way to the Dragon Academy where her dad should be right now and her Brother.

MagPie POV

This... is Berk. The best kept secret this side of, well, anywhere. Granted, it may not look like much, but this wet heap of rock packs more than a few surprises. Life here is amazing, just not for the faint of heart. You see, where most folks enjoy hobbies like whittling or needlepoint, we Berkians prefer... a little something we like to call Dragon Racing as i arrive to the dragon academy ,i peep over the gates to see Dragon riders getting ready for the grand annual Dragon Racing and amongst them was my Brother. which i notice standing in the very center with his dragon Azreth a stormcutter dragon just like Grandma Vollka dragon but Azreth was a bit smaller compare to grandmas that cause Azthre is still young.

next to my brother was his Best Friend Halz and his Dragon Drake a Typhoomerang Dragon, Both Eret and Halz were exceptionally talented Dragon riders. which admired by all.

"what are you doing here?" i flinch a familiar mocking voice that spoke behind me i turn around to see my cousins

Spitelout and Helen, children of uncle Snoutlout and aunt Jorga. Spiteloud had his father big buff brute body size and greasy hair and Helen well got her mother big lady size as well. Aunt Jorga was your typical viking woman and both kids had her lovely light silver eyes.

"i..i " i stuttered but Helen push back " you not allowed here..only people with dragons are allowed to come..not you no dragon geek!" she hissed

"Hey leave my sister alone!" we turn to Eret who was rushing over with Halz the moment Helen saw him, her attitude dramatically shift into a sweet girl and began to be smitten with halz.

which the latter retorted back " Spitelout why didn't stop your sister" Eret ask Spitelout who smiply shrugged and walk away with a smirk

Eret shook his head ad look down to me " you ok sis?" he ask, i smiled to Eret

" yep...i'm ok" Eret had moms Blond hair and blue eyes, which i envied a little and not only he inherit moms fierce Viking personality and good looks but has also inherit dad soft side and amazing dragon skills.

"what you doing here?" he ask i showed him the bag which Eret understood " dad still not here yet but i can give to him if you want" he said taking the bag form me

"if you please...i better go i need to see if mom didn't drown the twins yet" i joke, which Eret laugh as well " well ok...you'll be watchin, right?" he ask hopeful

i halted for a bit " yeah..i will ...well see then" i look over to Halz making his way over to Eret he looked at me, i gave a smile and a small wave before leaving.

i watch as Magpie run back home, " why doesnt she stay long?" Halz ask, i looked at him and sighed " what you think.." i groan as i head back over to Azreth who was laying down next to Drake.

"i dont..enlighten me" Halz mumbled as he jump onto his saddle. i sat down on the ground and lean my body over to Azreth

"my sister not like me..." i started i heard Halz comment " thank god for that" he said i glared at him before continuing

"She timid, Shy and she takes people critic way to seriously and..well coming here makes her feel uncomfortable SINCE SOMEONE KEPT CALLING HER NAMES!" i spoke as loud as i can making sure certain someone can here it.

Halz laughed and shook his head " from what i see..she just lack confidence...if your mom just let her ride" he muttered i only sighed " yeah..like that ever going to happen..form what happen 8 years ago..mom still scared" i said

8 years ago when i was 7 and Magpie was 6 we sneakily took our moms dragon " stormfly" since we couldnt fly toothless without dads special leg out for a fly, it started nice and slow amazing even and at that time i took a daring move which i always saw dad dude a barel roll but when stormfly did it Magpie who was sitting behind me lose her grip on me and fell into the sea, stormfly and i frantically search for her.

i got so scared finding i saw no trace of her soon after that dad came riding on toothless with mom i told them everything and we frantically search for her uncle snoutloud,fishlegs,duffnut looked everywhere until we got the news form back shore someone found her by the beach.

sure enough was she there, silent Fin found her while he was checking his dried fish he laid out. that time i could remember mom loud cry's as she held Magpie tightly and ever since then mom never lets magpie ride a dragon.

" you know...if mom just let Magpie ride..i know she going to be a talented dragon rider like me" i muttered Halz looked down to drake " we will never know" he uttered

i amusedly held twins hands as we proceed to the arena where the dragon racing starts

"Alf and Alfdis are ready to cheer for bigbrother?" i ask the Twins were 6 years old and both had Auburn hair and blue eyes. Alf was the older twin and Alfdis was younger twin both are very identical the only way to tell one form the other is their personality

Alf is more loud and fierce while Alfdis is timid and the one with the brains. but both equally mischievous.

"Alf is ready!" Alf yelled jumping around while Alfdis let out a low " brother going to win"

i smiled and lead them to the stands where father and mothers seats. the twin sat down on the platform while i stood beside dad chair

"hello hon." my dad greeted as i greeted back with a hug.

thee was no denying the fact i was a carbon copy of my dad both in looks and personality, i was timid and clumsy and not very strong

"hi dad..." i pulled away and stood next over the twins. mom arrive soon after and everyone was ready. dad looked around and gave the go signal to ready the dragon riders., uncle fishleg blew the horn and not a second later 6 dragon riders arrive. sweeping the arena making the crowd scream especially the ladies i see Eret leaning down high five with the fans he made his way over to us. and the twins frantically climbed on top of me lucky for them i was manage to maintain my balance as they stood over my shoulder. in doing so they were able to high five with Eret.

soon after that i lose balance and fell down making everyone laugh i sat up and gave them a look, while the twins simply grin at me.

soon after the dragons settled down dad stood up and introduce each rider.

"First lane with green and orange strip is Rider FishHook" a huge male with blond hair wearing a furry tunic and brown pants and huge furry boots and riding a Gronckle FishHook is uncle Fishlegs and Aunt Ruffnut Son , Fishhook was excatly a carbon copy of his dad but with his mom wild and mischievous personality and a no brainier.

"on the Second Lane and Third lane with Red Strips is SpiteLout and Helen" the two sibling both riding nightmare Spitelout nightmare had darker scale than Helens nightmare they waves their hands with arrogant looks to the crowded i could practically hear uncle snoutlout cheer.

"Fourth Lane with Green ..uh..mask..is Buffy!" a skinny girls with wild red hair riding a Purple Nadder and her face covered in green face paint

"That my girl!" uncle duffnut yells in the side lines along with his other 5 children Duffy, Guffy, Gappy, Derry, Perick, please dont even ask why their names are like that. its uncle Duffnut and his Wife is equality insane as him.

"and on the fifth lane with Yellow Strips is Halz!" Halz raised his hand up making half the girls in the arena scream and giggle.

its obvious Halz was popular with the girls, he was an attractive young man with Black hair that covered over his forehead that frame perfectly his Black eyes.

"and on the Blue Lane...is my son Eret!" Eret raised both his hands and equally making girls scream.

and surprisingly my brother too was popular with the ladies, as dad finished his introduction the elder race her hand and drop the scarf signaling the go sings and off the dragons go, i sat there watching enviously at the riders race around the village, the twin looked excited and seem they couldn't wait for their turn to become a rider themselves. lucky them they'll be able to ride someday while i has a long way to go.

by the end of the race my brother won with 15 points he just got lucky he got the black sheep.

that night everyone celebrated in our house everyone was so noisy i had made a quick get away. i slowly crept outside and took in fresh air.

"what a lovely night" i muttered as i walk around to where the dragons were Toothless was the one that first approach me i laughed as he nuzzled his head into my belly. " hey there toothless..." i smiled as i sat down on the ground petting his head.

"what are you doing here?" i turn around to see Halz walking over, i smiled " away from the chaos" i said looking back to toothless who was enjoying the attention

"i can understand that..." he muttered as he petted Drake head. i look up to Halz who staring at the moon.

"Halz..what does it feel like to be up there?" i ask he looked down to me little shock

"well.." he mumbled " it feels amazing..no words could describe the feeling of flying with you best bud" he said in much awed. as he looked down to Drake who nuzzled to his side

i envy them so much "maybe someday...you too will experience it Magpie" he said catching me off guard, i smiled and thanked him, even though i knew it would never happen.

the next morning

mom and dad were in hurry packing their things, this morning they receive a urgent help call form the village on the west side about dragons attacking their village for no reason dad being a peacekeeper that he is answered the call.

"Eret...you'll be in charge while i'm gone understand" dad said as he settled ontop of toothless

"yes dad" Eret nodded responsively , this wasn't the fist time dad left Eret in charge.

"Magpie honey" i looked over to mom as she lock up her things "you take care of your brothers..make sure they stay out of trouble" she said i smiled and nodded

she gave me a hug and kiss, same with the twins and Eret. before flying away as soon as they were out of sight Eret left to the dragon academy to tell the news while the twins disappeared god know where and i was left to do nothing.

since home was boring i left to go visit grandma vollka, " grandma" i called as entered house only to be jump scared by skyjumper hanging down the ceiling like a bat.

"Skyjumper!" i yelled skyjumper made loud laugh before settling down "hahahaha did he scare you sweet heart" i lean back to see Grandma walking around skyjumper

"hahahah not really" i grin as petted his head " so grandma whatcha doing?" i ask

Grandma laughed " oh~ nothing much just cleaning the house..where you father?" she ask

"dad away for work for a few days..brother is in charge" i answered as looked at grandfather stoik portrait.

"scary looking isn't he" grandma said as she looked at the portrait

"hehehe..yeah i bet i would be scared of grandpa if he was still around" i told her truthfully grandma simply laughed

"i doubt that...if he was around you would have loved him" she said " he would have spoiled you more than your bothers" she chuckled

"really sure a bout that grandma" i grin Grandma gave me a look "i know he will..like how i'm spoiling you" she pinched my cheek, making me laugh

"is it true Grandpa stoic was honorable and selfless leader..strong ...and very viking no one could compare how great of leader he was...well that aside of my father" i shrugged grandma started to laugh " yes...he is all that and.." grandma looked at me " he was man with a soft heart" she said adoringly.

"i wished i could have meet him" i muttered " i wish you did too" grandma patted me, when someone knocked on the door. we walk over to see it was Gobber looking like he had just came form a mile run.

"ooh hello Magpie..just the girl i'm looking for" he panted

"what is it gobber" i ask he grin and pointed at something i step out see the twin riding Gronckle

i looked down to see uncle fishlegs yelling them to comeback i sighed " dont tell me they stole one of meatlogs kids" Gobber nodded

" well you better hurry...those boys already destoryed half of the towns stalls" gobber said

i groan and marched out

"ALF!..ALFDISS!" i yelled the twin stop pulling Gronckle around and hovered

"GET DOWN RIGHT NOW!" i yelled again

"aww but sis were playing dragon rider!" Alf yelled

"you far to young and inexperience to ride a dragon now get down before you get hurt!" i yelled with my hands on my waist

"yeah..but sis your old and you don't ride a dragon too!" Aldis answered back. i choke back and shook my head " my case is different ..now get down before i call eret to make you come down!"

the twin pouted and made the granckle land down. when she did the twins slide down pouting

i shook my head and look up to uncle fishlegs running up the hill happy to see Gronckle down but without me noticing the twin did something that made the Gronckle jump and ramp straight at me

"AAAAAH!" i screamed as hold on to Gronckle face as she soar up to the sky

"SIS!"

"FISHLOG!"

Gobber paused and look at fishlegs " seriously cant you given it a more nicer name than that" .

" Aaah! Fishlog..right...stop..wait!" i yelled but fishlog hurled me up over her back as she continued to swirl around

"get me down from here!" i screamed as held onto her back for my dear life

Eret POV

i was talking with other dragon riders when suddenly the twins came running in looking scared "Brother!" they shouted

"what wrong?" i ask they panted looked each other before screaming " BIG SIS IS IN TROUBLE!" i jump back

"what..what happen?" i ask worried what had happen

they both pointed up, which made me frown and looked up to my shock i saw Magpie riding on one of Meatlog kids as she was swirling around the sky

"my oddens what happen?" i ask in hurry as i got on to Azreth

"well...sort made fishlog sacred..and she ramp into sis" ALfdis said i gape at them and was about to scold them before i heard Magpie scream

"well talk about this later" i said i and azreth flyoff

Halz joined me as we chase after frighten fishlog and Magpie

"Magpie!" i called "Eret! Help me!" she screamed as fishlog tossed her around

"Magpie get a grip on Meetlogs neck!" Halz shouted

"what the hell do you think i'm doing!" Magpie screamed as to when suddenly Fishlog swirled around causing Magpei to lose her grip

"Magpie!" both Halz and me screamed

"SIS!" the twins shouted form down below

"ERET!" She screamed

2. Chapter 2

"were sorry big brother " the twins sobbed as i scolded them for thier misbehavior

"sorry wont cut it..you guys what happen today could seriously hurted magpie ..just thank the oddens she isn't" i told them they duck their head looking really sorry. grandma volka patted my back

"come now..Eret you can see the boys are very sorry" she said

"but grandma...i cant just let them off that easily just because their my brothers" i told her, she gave me a small smile " and now they learn their lesson...eret scolding like this will only make them even more guilty as they already are its enough their just kids" she spoke softly

i look back to the twins were crying non-stop which made me a little guilty i huffed and patted their heads

" ok fine but when magpie wakes up you better owe it up to her" i pointed they nodded and rushed over to her side.

"Eret" i trun back to Halz who entered the room quietly " hows is she?" he ask

"she ok...not harm she just fainted" i said

"i'm happy she not hurt...but how did she go unharmed" Halz inquired

"that i don't know" i muttered

>=Flash Back=

"ERET!" She screamed

i swoop down Azreth as fast as he could and try to reach Magpei hand but something bright flash before my eyes causing Azreth to pull back once i open my eyes again i saw no trace of her, i panic

"Magpie?..MAGPIE!" i screamed looking around the ground

"ERET!" i look back to halz who was pointing at something i looked where he was pointing to see Magpie on the ground near the cliff of the village " MAGPIE!" i screamed as we swoop down.

i jump off the back of Azreth and picked her up " Magpie!..oh oddens Magpie!" i yelled shaking her the twin came rushing in crying " Sis!" they cried

as i continued to shake her she let out a soft groan. "she alive" i muttered i quickly picked her up and rushed to grandma house where she was treated immediately by grandma and Gobber

_=end of flash back=

* * *

>"well whatever happen is a miracle..thank odden that" Gobber said as he hubbed over

"for now let the lass rest and you boys need to eat as well come now" he said as he drag me and twins out of the house.

i took last glance to magpie before the door was shut.

Magpie POV

i open my eyes and let a groan when a shot of electrifying pain wave through out my body i slowly sat up and to see i was in granmas house.

"what happen.." i uttered ruffling my hair then suddeny i remember.

"i fell..then i was falling" memories of that moment flash before my mind, that moment when i fell off of fishlogs back and then.

"a bright light flash..then something shrap grab me" i looked down my sleeves and quickly pulled up to see 4 distinc claw marks cross over my shoulder. i look out out in a daze i remember slightly seeing white scales and sounds of wings flapping " was it a dragon...no way" i muttered , i shook my head and step ut of bed and walk over to the window "i dont remember any white dragon in the dragon book before or dad even mentioning one" i thought for a while and look up to the moon

"Magpie are you awake?" i turn back hearing grandmas voice calling form downstairs " yes grandma!" i answered

"i might as well ask dad when he gets home" i muttered before heading down.

causing me to miss a chance to see an unknown shadow flying by the window.

the next few days the twins were very obedient of me and trying their best to redeem themselves but i told it was ok but they said something about honor or responsibility and what not. i'm only guessing that's what Eret told them.

"Rooooaaaaarrr!"

we all heard a familair dragon roar while we were clarning up the house. well rush out to see mom and dad finally home " mom! dad!" we cheered running over

"were home!" mom yelled as she pulled all 4 into a hug " uuuuh~ i miss you kids!" she muttered kissing each of our faces

"aw mom!" Eret whine as mom showered our faces with kisses " now common on honey your going smutter the kids" dad called as he walk over mom let go just for us to greet dad.

eret and dad did a fist thing and ruffled the twins head and gave me a tight hug " hows my princess" he smiled

i grin "i'm ok" i said

"how did work go, dad?" eret ask

"hahaha..it was amusing and tiring" dad called as he lean on toothless head

"you should have seen the chief..when he saw toothless and stormfly" mom laughed as we walk inside

"dad wait a minute " i called dad stop and look back to me " wait is it honey?" he wondered

"dad...have you ever seen a dragon with white scales before?" i ask biting my lips dad thought back " well..yes...it was when i was kid it was hybrid whispering death but we called it screaming death..it huge its scales were completely white and red eyes" he describe but the dragon i vaguely remember doesnt have red eyes it had gentle yellow ones like any other dragon.

"why are you asking?" dad ask, i sheepishly shook my head "nothing just wondering" i said dad frown and was about to ask again when mom started to call us. lucky break for me but i know dad wont let off easily

"hoeny look!" mom spread a white dress infornt of me "what do you think?" she miled i nodded as i felt the sliky tunic "it beautiful mom" i said

"i knew you've love it" she grin " the momment i saw this i knew it would suit you" she gin

"yeah so what occasion can she wear this?" eret ask galncing over his new dagger dad brought him.

"what else her wedding day of course" mom chimed causing everyone to pause

"EH!" dad and boys yelled screaming making cringe back mom looking them confusedly " what?" she uttered

"what do you mean wedding day!" eret yelled dropping his dagger

"yes honey what do you mean?" dad shakily ask mom blinked innocently at them " well...we all know that day well come and Magpei is almost at an age where she can be engaged with someone" mom said

"but mom you got engage when you were 20..magpie is still 15~" Eret yelled

"his right darling ..isnt it to early to think like that" dad added

"yeah mom! we dont want to give Sis away!" the twin added mom frown and argued back saying we never know or what not, while they argue i held the lovely silk white dress in my hands

"wedding day huh" i muttered

"ERET!" everyone quite down when there a hurried knock on the door. Dad open the door to see a surprised Halz " chief your back!" he called

"Halz..my boy what wrong?" dad ask while Eret walk on over

"Chief..Eret you got to see what we found in the forest" he sad in serious tune.

dad and Eret nodded and followed Halz away.

>"well i wonder what...wheres the twins" mom inquired i look back and look around to see no sign of the boys " arrgh..they snuck away again" she muttered as she march out

"come Magpie i need an extra hand for this" she yelled as i place down the dress and followed mom.

we headed to the forest where we saw dragon riders and their father there. " hey ruffnut what going on?" mom ask. aunt Ruffnut turn around " uh...its better if you see it" she said mom and i looked confused for second before rushing to see.

a large scorch mark n the ground and few trees brunt to bits and a few bark still in engulf in flames...white flames to be exact.

"white flames?" i stated " this can only mean one thing!" uncle fishlegs exclaimed

"what?" i ask looking at him.

"that there a new species of dragon that just came into our land and is marking its territory" he giggled as he looked book of dragons

"i wonder what species it could be...could be new breed of storm cutter ..or..or a gronckle..UH~ what could it be ..what could it be" he yammer as he obsere the flame.

"well someone excited" uncle snoutloute retorted as he walk on over to dad who checking the scortch mark. " darling is something the matter?" mom ask as she walk on over with the twins in hand.

"Astrid...dont you think this scorch mark looks familiar" he ask dazedly everyone gather and see.

"what doesnt that scorch pattern resembles toothless once" i inquired

"your right!..its a night furry scorch mark!" uncle fishlegs exclaimed

"but its falmes are white so...that means" Eret muttered

"theres a new species of night furry in our land" dad stated.

after hour me and mom left first while other stayed and check the area "doesnt you think its wonderful honey..there could a new species of night furry here in berk" mom exclaimed as she carried sleeping Alf in her arms while i carried sleeping Alfdis as well.

"it would be cool mom...and toothless will finally has friend in his own kind" i said mom hummed as we made our way home.

i stop second and look back to that area " could it be related to you" i muttered vaguely remembering the dragon that save me.

"Magpie honey hurry before it get dark!" mom called as i snap out of my thoughts and hurried over.

that night dad and eret planed that tomorrow they search whole area of berk to find signs or clues of the new dragon. after eating i tuck in the twins and cover Eret who went to bed early since he and ad have to wake early tomorrow.

as i was about to tuck myself to bed i jumped when i saw a shadow pass by the window, i pause for sec thinking i must been seeing things but again something pass in silent swoop i walk on over to the window and saw something white flying away towards the forest.

"RRAAAR!" i looked to see toothless silently groaning at the thing. i rushed over to eret " Eret!..Eret wake up!" i shook Eret. but the idiot simply shrugged me off and snored back to sleep.

"arrrgh..why you are such a stubborn sleeper" i cursed, i bite back and decided to check the thing myself i hurried out and silently shutting the door and check at toothless who seem t want to join him but i told him no.

"toothless stay here..is anything happens if hear me scream wake dad ok" he whimpered and let me off. as i run to the forest.

as i silent crept through the forest i sort regret not bringing toothless. seeing how scary the forest was. and i cant see thing that clearly at night. "gezz..where did it go" i muttered but carelessly trip over a root making fall face flat.

"arrrgggg" i mutter as i stood up and dusted myself off. then froze upon seeing a large shadow that casted over me. i slowly turn around and saw familiar yellow eyes staring back at me.

"oh my" i gape before it raored at me " Yaaah!" i yelled falling back on my butt.

i gape at dragon, dad assume was wrong it was night furry a white night furry. " oddens horse wow" i awed but crawled back as it creep towards me. i crawled back until my back was up against the tree, i grip back and slight turn away when the white night furry sniffed at me " eehhh" i whimpered as i watch it pull back and suddenly did something unsuspected.

"woaaah!" i started to laugh when it smooth tongue started to lick me " hahahahha wait..no..hahaha!" i laughed as i pushed it back and wipe the slubber on face and look at it.

it let out a gargled laugh and flew few feet away form me. "well...your a friendly one" i said as i stood up, the white night furry adorable look at me as it lean its head out, for sec i didnt get what it wanted then suddenly i remember something that toothless would do.

i slowly place my hand on its head and began petting it. it let out a purr as i began to pet it more then i notice something as it rolled on the ground. " your a girl" i said as i look at her.

she looked at me "those eyes...i've seen them way before" i muttered but that thought snap when i heard noises people yelling

"Magpie!..Magpie~"

i frown " Eret?" i muttered " Honey!" i stood up more " Dad?"

then suddenly i felt a gust of wind blow behind i turn around and saw the white night furry started to fly away " wait!..no!" i yelled but it was too late she already fled away.
